

Instrument Technician

$42,023 – 53,637/ annually minimum to midpoint, contingent upon experience and education

The City Utilities Department is accepting applications for an Instrument Technician. This position will perform responsible technical work testing, maintaining, repairing, installing, and calibrating instruments, controls, gauges, electrical and monitoring equipment used in a City plant and satellite stations. Maintain and make appropriate changes to plant SCADA system. Associate or technical degree (or higher) in a related field preferred. Minimum of three years relevant experience with a degree; minimum of five years relevant experience without a degree. Positions assigned to Water Production must possess and maintain a valid driver's license. For a complete job description and application, go to www.gocomojobs.com. Official City of Columbia application must be completed by the deadline of September 2, 2021.